Public Sector Management · PM168

Fiscal Sustainability Techniques, Governance & Public Sector Management

Cairo · 27 Dec 2026 - 7 Jan 2027

Date	Venue	Duration
27 Dec 2026 - 7 Jan 2027	Cairo	2 Weeks
Fee	Ref	Language
£5,000 GBP	PM168	English

Introduction

This Advanced Fiscal Sustainability Techniques, Governance, and Public Sector Management course aims to improve the adaptation and integration of Governance and Fiscal Sustainability Techniques essential elements.

The Governance, Fiscal Sustainability Techniques, Risk Management, Risk-based Auditing, and Risk-based Compliance functions will be covered in this course in order to achieve cooperation among these functions and improve the Governance process within the organisation.

This practical course demonstrates how effective Governance implementation enables the estimation, monitoring, and reporting of governance risks through decision-making, business performance, and adherence to rules, guidelines, and declarations.

Course Objectives of Fiscal Sustainability Techniques, Governance & Public Sector Management

Participants will be exposed to proven efficient strategies that enhance the execution and delivery of Government Services, produce more elevated levels of citizen fulfilment, end bureaucratic inefficiencies, and improve fiscal responsibility and accountability.

Upon the completion of this advanced course, participants will gain:

- Improve alignment with the mission, vision, and values of the organisation
- Evolve performance and accountability
- Increase decision-making agility
- Advance accountability for key objectives, risks, and performance
- Enhance the convergence of Governance components
- Reduce the financial risk while achieving your organisation’s goals
- Understand fundamental concepts of Governance & Fiscal Sustainability

Course Methodology of Fiscal Sustainability Techniques, Governance & Public Sector Management

In this course, different techniques to reach the participants will be applied diversely. This Public Sector Management, Governance & Fiscal Sustainability Techniques course will combine “hearing” and “seeing and writing”.
Several methods will include brainstorming, exercises, group discussion, and sharing experiences.

Organisational Impact of Fiscal Sustainability Techniques, Governance & Public Sector Management

Participants will be exposed to proven efficient approaches that improve the performance and delivery of government services, create higher levels of citizen satisfaction, end bureaucratic inefficiencies, and improve fiscal responsibility and accountability including:

- Key Principles of Good Governance in the Public Sector
- Governance Benefits & Barriers
- The Risk, Compliance & Internal Audit Triangle
- Internal Audit New Approach: Risk-based Audit
- Compliance New Approach: Risk-based Compliance
- Risk Management Taxonomies
- Strategies to Institutionalise the Regulation, Monitoring, and Enforcement of Government Projects and Programmes
- Strategies to Reduce Systemic Corrupt Practices in Government Operations
- Fiscal Management Accountability: Revenue Forecasting and Expense Budgeting
- Banking Activities Related to Managing Their Business
- Cash Flow Analysis, Liquidity, and Working Capital Management
- Financial Analysis and Ratio Analysis

Personal Impact Fiscal Sustainability Techniques, Governance & Public Sector Management

Upon the completion of this advanced course, participants will gain:

- Improved alignment to mission, vision, and values of the organisation
- Improved performance and accountability
- Increased decision-making agility
- Increased accountability for key objectives, risks, and performance measurement
- Enhanced convergence of CG components
- Improved confidence in managerial competences

Target Audience of Fiscal Sustainability Techniques, Governance & Public Sector Management

This Public Sector Management, Governance & Fiscal Sustainability Techniques course is suitable to a wide range of professionals working on Governmental Organisations and Public Sector Entities that are planning to apply proper governance within their culture and operations.

This training course is suitable for a wide range of professionals but will greatly benefit:

- Senior and middle-level management of Governmental Organisations and Public Sector entities
- Executive management and directors
- Responsible directors working in finance, internal audit, and risk management
- Managers of compliance and internal control departments
- Non-Financial directors

Course Outlines of Fiscal Sustainability Techniques, Governance & Public Sector Management

DAY 1

Governance, what is it about? Key Principles of Good Governance in the Public Sector

- The Definition, Goals, Basics, and Principles of Governance
- The Added Value of Governance
- Building Governance Framework
- Key Principles of Good Governance in the Public Sector
- Key Requirements to Achieving Good Governance in the Public Sector
- External & Internal Parties Involved in the Governance Process
- Governance Committees - Audit Committee The Most Important One
- Benefits of Integrating Governance Activities
- Effective Executive Management & Board Members
- Barriers / Obstacles That Prevent Full Implementation of Governance
- OECD Principles of Governance

DAY 2

The Risk, Compliance & Internal Audit Triangle

- The Fundamental Differences and Importance of Its Convergence
- Overlapping: Healthy or Wasteful?
- Cooperation Among These Functions
- New Trend in Audit: Risk-based Internal Audit
- How and Why Audit Units move into Risk-based Audit Programmes
- Auditing the Control Environment
- Risk-based Compliance: Definition, Responsibilities, and Goals
- Anti-Money Laundering

DAY 3

Banking System - Benefits of Dealing with Banks

- Commercial Banks vs. Investment Banks
- Different Bank Accounts - Savings, Time Deposit, Current A/C’s
- Lending Types: Overdraft vs. Term Loan and Lending Collaterals
- Letter of Credit and Letter of Guarantee
- Terminology & Concepts

DAY 4

Interpretation of Financial Statements - Financial Structure & Financial Analysis

- Why do we have Financial Statements?
- Purpose & Objectives of Auditing Financial Statements
- Financial Position Components: Assets & Liabilities
- Understanding The Characteristics of The Financial Statements
- Healthy / Unhealthy Financial Structure
- Profitability, Liquidity, Leverage, Activity & Debt Ratios
- Gap Analysis & Mismatch Problem
- Cash Flow Analysis

DAY 5

Risk Management Taxonomies

- Risk Management Framework
- Risk Management Triangle
- Credit Risk, Operational Risk, Market Risk
- Risk Control Self-Assessment (RCSA) and Heat Map

DAY 6

Public Sector Management in Changing Financial and Economic Environments

- Understanding How Volatility Impacts Government Decision-making
- Developing Financial Data Collection and Analysis Networks For Decision-making Inputs
- Creating More Effective Lines of Communication to Improve Decision-making Processes

DAY 7

Strategic Boards & Strategic Thinking and Planning

- Role and Responsibilities of Board Members: Strategic Boards and Strategic Members
- Role of Strategic Planning and Thinking in Driving an Organisation's Sustainable Growth For Within The Context of Sustainable Development
- Developing Strategic Planning Culture is Required to Uphold Organisations’ Growth
- Connecting Challenges with Strategic Objectives
- Digesting Strategy's Berries to Ensure Success
- Questions a Leader should be Equipped with to Drive Organisations:
  - How to create and develop a vivid strategy and to ensure a smooth execution?
  - How to dwindle the gap between the organisation's strategic planning and execution?
  - What can cause a strategy to fail?
  - How to monitor the strategy to lead to organisational success and glory?
  - How to close the strategy to the performance gap?
  - How to measure & monitor the strategic objectives through a set of KPIs (Strategic & Operational)?

DAY 8

Strategies to Institutionalise the Regulation, Monitoring, and Enforcement of Government Projects / Programmes

- Understanding the Linkages between Sound Institutions, Good Policies, and Effective Government Programmes
- Determining the Appropriate Balance of Government Regulation
- Developing Programme Monitoring Plans that Focus on Accountability and Transparency

DAY 9

Strategies to Reduce Systemic Corrupt Practices in Government Operations

- Developing Managerial Accountability Plans at Each Level of Government
- Identifying Techniques to Mitigate Corrupt Practices
- Developing Performance-based Indicators to Analyse and Measure Results
- Improving Procedures and Quality in Daily Transactions with Customers / Beneficiaries

DAY 10

Fiscal Management Accountability: Revenue Forecasting and Expense Budgeting

- Understanding Revenue Requirements For On-going Operations and Asset Expenditures
- Setting Priorities For Tax Policy, User Fees, and other Cost Recovery Tools Under IASB
- Using Performance Budgeting to Set Government Programme Priorities
- Liquidity Risk Management
- Recommendations for a Successful Governance
- Conclusion and Augmentations - Tying up the Loose Ends

Register or ask about this course online https://www.hplustraining.com/cities/cairo/fiscal-sustainability-techniques-governance-public-sector-management-54567 training@hplustraining.com · +44 74 0108 8599 · +90 539 827 59 14