Introduction

In today's fast-paced and competitive business environment, the efficient management of facility and office services is critical to organizational success. Facilities coordination is no longer limited to just maintenance and space allocation; it now encompasses a wide range of services that directly influence employee satisfaction, operational efficiency, cost control, and sustainability initiatives.

This course is designed to equip facility coordinators, office managers, and administrative professionals with the essential skills and best practices needed to manage modern workplaces effectively. Participants will explore strategic and operational aspects of facilities and office services management, including space planning, vendor management, office relocations, health and safety compliance, sustainability initiatives, and service excellence models.

Through a combination of real-world case studies, interactive discussions, and hands-on activities, attendees will learn how to implement efficient systems, develop proactive maintenance strategies, manage resources effectively, and enhance the overall work environment. The program emphasizes both the technical and interpersonal skills required for successful coordination, ensuring that participants can foster collaboration, drive continuous improvement, and align facility operations with organizational goals.
